Big Men of Brawn and Muscle

Big healthy men fancy that because of their great strength they are proof against diseases that play havoc with their less sturdy brothers. is an error. Big muscles require a big supply of blood. Without it they quickly waste

Any disease which attacks the mucous membranes causes the arteries to contract, and so shuts off the

For this reason strong men yield to this disease quite as quickly as do those of average build and The ordinary cold is the commonest form of

A cold neglected quickly develops into catarrh of the throat, then of the bronchial tubes, and finally consumption. Others suffer from catarrh of the stomach or of the intestines; or of the kidneys, liver or bladder; and among women—of the pelvic organs. Catarrh is a disease of the mucous membranes, the mucous cells, nerve centres, and of the blood.

It is an established fact that local treatment cannot cure this dis-

is the new cure for catarrh. It works through the blood vessels--is carried by them direct to the mucocells which have become packed with poisonous secretions, and sets them throbbing and pulsating. As a result the poisonous matter is quickly expelled; the muco cells take up their duties, the inflammation subsides, the unhealthy discharge is stopped, and the sufferer finds himself on the road to robust health.

We guarantee Rexall Mucu-Tone to cure (not only relieve, but eure) catarrh in every form, whether of the head, throat, stomach, kidneys, bladder or pelvic organs, or we will give you back your money.
